

ACCOUNTING

Immaculata's Accounting programs provide the knowledge, technical skills, and professional attributes required for entry-level positions and future advancement in accounting fields. The programs combine practical experience with the development of effective communication, teamwork, and critical-thinking skills. Students prepare for careers in private, public and governmental organizations with possible assignments in payroll, financial analysis, auditing, tax preparation, and related areas.

DEGREES OFFERED

Bachelor of Science in Accounting – 126 Credits
Associate of Science in Accounting – 63 Credits
Certificate in Accounting - 21 Credits
Certificate in Internal Auditing – 24 Credits

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS – Bachelor's Degree

Principles of Macroeconomics
Principles of Microeconomics
Statistics
Accounting Principles I, II
Business Ethics
Intermediate Mathematics or Introductory Analysis
Intermediate Accounting I, II
Federal Income Tax
Advanced Taxes
Cost Accounting I
Advanced Accounting I, II
Auditing
Business Law I
Introduction to Finance
Business & Technical Writing or Business & Professional Speaking
Business Practicum
Self-Awareness through Groups
Accounting Practicum

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS –Associate's Degree

Principles of Macroeconomics
Principles of Microeconomics
Business Computer Applications
Business Law I
Business Management
Accounting Principles I, II
Intermediate Accounting I, II or Federal Income Tax & Cost Accounting I

REQUIREMENTS –Certificate in Accounting

Intermediate Accounting I, II
Federal Income Tax
Cost Accounting I
Advanced Accounting I
Auditing
Introduction to Finance

REQUIREMENTS –Certificate in Internal Auditing

Managing Business Information or
Systems Analysis & Design
Internal Audit
Process Design & Internal Audit
Corporate Governance & Accounting
Leadership Dynamics

AND CHOICE OF:

Accounting Track

Intermediate Accounting I, II
Forensic Accounting

Information Technology Track

IT Risk Management
IT Security & Audit
Systems Analysis and Design or Managing Business Information (whichever course has not already been taken)

Degrees & Certificate can be completed in the evening