

Immaculata's degree in Finance conveys the knowledge and the skills necessary to assist individuals and organizations in making sound financial decisions, including saving, borrowing, investing, risk tolerance and currency valuation, are areas with which finance majors become very familiar.. A degree in Finance prepares the student to understand and analyze a range of financial decisions. An important part of the program are courses in accounting, economics, computing, and mathematics.

DEGREE OFFERED

Bachelor of Science in Finance – 126 Credits

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS – Bachelor's Degree Finance

Principles of Macroeconomics
Principles of Microeconomics
Statistics
Accounting Principles I
Accounting Principles II
Business Ethics
Intermediate Mathematics or Introductory Analysis
Money & Banking
Investments
Finance Seminar
Introduction to Finance
International Finance
Advanced Corporate Finance
Managing Business Information
Self-Awareness through Groups
Business & Technical Writing or Business & Professional Speaking
Financial Planning
Strategic Planning
Leadership Dynamics
3 credits from Business Department

Degree can be completed entirely in the evening