

Certificate Foreign Language, Literature, and Culture

Certificates in Language Proficiency or Certificates in Language, Literature and Culture are available in French and Spanish. These eighteen-credit programs are designed to develop a knowledge of and an appreciation for the language and cultures of other peoples. Careers utilizing foreign languages include those in education, social service, industry and commerce, travel and tourism, government, translation, and the armed forces.

Requirement: 18 semester hours selected from among departmental offerings with the approval of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.
