

GENERAL SCIENCE

Immaculata's General Science Program is designed for students pursuing a wide variety of interdisciplinary careers requiring a strong foundation in biology minor studies in another discipline.

DEGREE OFFERED

Bachelor of Arts in General Science – 126 Credits

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Cell Biology

Genetics

Evolution & Diversity

Ecology

Fundamental Chemical Concepts I, II

Physics

Introductory Analysis or

Calculus I & II

Statistics

3 credits from among 200/300 level Biology courses

3 credits from among 200/300 level Chemistry courses

3 credits from among 200/300 level Physics courses

3 credits from among 200/300 level Biology courses

3 credits from among research/seminar courses

6 credits from among Biology, Chemistry & Physics courses

EDUCATION CERTIFICATIONS OFFERED

While working toward the Bachelor of Arts degree in General Science students may obtain teacher certification in Secondary Education. Please refer to the Education Certification requirements sheet which outlines the requirements to obtain teacher certification

While the majority of the courses are offered in the evening, day courses are required to complete the degree requirements.