

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology – on one level or another – involves every vital area of human interaction. From issues of social justice or societal religious beliefs to urban life, social stratification and family relations, sociology measures the heights and plumbs the depths of the human condition. The pursuit of a degree in sociology automatically opens three general career paths – sociology study in graduate school and a career as a sociologist; sociology/Spanish, which adds a bilingual element to the sociology curriculum; and sociology with a concentration in social work.

DEGREES OFFERED

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology -126 Credits
 Bachelor of Arts in Spanish/Social Work -126 Credits
 Bachelor of Arts in Criminology/Sociology-126 Credits
 Bachelor of Arts in Sociology/Social Work – 126 Credits

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS - Sociology

Principles of Sociology
 Social Values
 Sociology of Deviance
 Sociological Theory
 Minority Groups
 Seminar I: Methods
 Seminar II: Field Research
 Sociology of the Family
 Principles of Economics
 Statistics
 Two sociology electives

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS – Spanish-Social Work

Principles of Sociology
 Minority Groups
 Social Values
 Working with Adolescents
 The Sociology of Mental Disorders
 Field Practicum I
 Field Practicum II
 Sociology of the Family
 Advanced Intermediate Spanish I
 Advanced Intermediate Spanish II
 Advanced Composition (Spanish)
 Culture & Civilization of Spain
 Spanish for Careers
 Latin American Culture & Civilization
 Advanced Conversation
 Seminar (Spanish)

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS - Criminology-Sociology

Principles of Sociology
 Criminology
 Sociology of Deviance
 Juvenile Delinquency
 Introduction to Criminal Justice
 Field Practicum I, II
 Social Problems: A World at Risk
 Seminar I: Methods
 Seminar II: Field Research
 Statistics
 6 credits from among selected History/Politics courses
 Foundation in Psychology
 Social Psychology
 Abnormal Psychology
 Elementary Spanish I, II
 Intermediate Spanish I, II
 Crime & Gender
 Minority Groups
 Forensic Science I, II

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS– Sociology/Social Work

Principles of Sociology
 Sociology of Deviance
 Sociological Theory
 Minority Groups
 Seminar I: Methods
 Seminar II: Field Research
 Social Values
 Working with Adolescents
 The Sociology of Mental Disorders
 Field Practicum I, II
 Statistics
 Lifespan Development