MINOR FIELD: MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

DEPARTMENT: Business and Accounting

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS: 18

RATIONALE:

The Management Information Systems (MIS) minor is designed to enable the graduate to apply the theoretical constructs of information technology, project management, and knowledge management to the resolution of practical, real-world business issues. The discipline of MIS involves the analysis, design, implementation, and management of an organization’s information systems.

REQUIREMENTS:

- BUS 327 Managing Business Information
- BUS 360 Business Management
- CIS 105 3-D Computing
- INFO 215 Social Media Dynamics

Choice of Two:

- BUS 340 Topics in E-Commerce
- CIS 218 Software Design & Programming
- CIS 224 Data & Information
- CIS 326 Data Structures
- CIS 335 Technology & Ethical Issues
- COM 200 Business and Technical Writing
- INFO 120 Web Design Fundamentals
- INFO 230 Web Design
- INFO 310 System and Project Management
- INFO 401 Emerging Technologies
- INFO 404 Human Computer Interaction

DEPARTMENT ADVISOR: Dr. Joseph Pugh