MINOR FIELD: ECONOMICS

DEPARTMENT: Business and Accounting

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS: 18

RATIONALE:

An economics minor will enable a student from another department/discipline to explore a social science known for its rigor and fascination. Many of the world’s most pressing problems are economic in nature, and a minor in economics will prepare students to analyze real-world scenarios.

REQUIREMENTS:

- ECO 201 Principles of Macroeconomics
- ECO 202 Principles of Microeconomics
- ECO 327 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory
- ECO 328 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory

Choice of Two:

- ECO 319 History of Economic Thought
- ECO 320 Comparative Economic Systems
- ECO 322 Economic Development
- ECO 372 Current Issues in Economics
- ECO 381 Global Economics
- ECO 386 The Economics of Public Policy
- ECO 387 Antitrust and Regulation
- ECO 389 The Economics of Law

DEPARTMENT ADVISOR: Dr. Elizabeth Faunce