Northwest University – College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (CSBS) – PsyD in Counseling Psychology Program

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences invites applications for the positions of:

(1) PsyD Program Director and Associate or Full Professor of Psychology
(2) Assistant or Associate Professor of Graduate Psychology

Northwest University (www.northwestu.edu) is a regionally accredited institution and affiliated with the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. The university was founded in 1934 and is located in Kirkland, Washington just 10 miles from downtown Seattle.

The Doctor of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) in Counseling Psychology prepares students to qualify for professional licensure as a Licensed Psychologist in Washington State with tangible knowledge and skills that can be used to serve the needs of others in a globally relevant and socially conscious manner. Using the practitioner-scholar model, the university provides training to equip students with assessment and intervention skills leading to qualification for licensure as a psychologist. The program has a focus on international psychology and service to the global community, with commitment to social justice, from a Christian worldview. This applied program focuses on training skilled practitioners with a solid focus on scholarly research, discipline and inquiry.

Open Positions:

(1) PsyD Program Director/Associate or Full Professor of Graduate Psychology, Tenure-track

Position Description: A faculty and administration position which provides oversight of the CSBS PsyD program. Works with the Dean of the CSBS to provide leadership over activities related to the students, faculty, budget, and administration of the PsyD program. Faculty portion of job consists of teaching at least half of their academic load in the PsyD program.

Qualifications:

PhD, PsyD, or EdD in Counseling or Clinical Psychology from a regionally accredited Program.
Experience teaching at the graduate level.
Licensure as a Psychologist in Washington State, or license-eligible

(2) Assistant or Associate Professor of Graduate Psychology, Tenure-track

Position Description: Tenure-track faculty member to teach graduate psychology courses, guide students in clinical training and research activities, and conduct scholarly research. The hiring committee is especially interested in applicants with experience in research (quantitative or qualitative). ABD applications will be considered as long as degree is granted by start date.
Qualifications:
PhD, PsyD, or EdD in Psychology from a regionally accredited Program.
Experience teaching at the graduate level.

For more information about these positions or to apply, please visit http://www.northwestu.edu/jobs/ or contact Dr. Matt Nelson, Dean of CSBS at matt.nelson@northwestu.edu or 425.889.5331.