

MINOR FIELD: MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

DEPARTMENT: Business—Accounting—Economics

TOTAL NUMBER OF CREDITS: 18

RATIONALE:

The Management Information Systems (MIS) minor is designed to enable the graduate to apply the theoretical constructs of information technology, project management, and knowledge management to the resolution of practical, real-world business issues. The discipline of MIS involves the analysis, design, implementation, and management of an organization's information systems.

REQUIREMENTS:

BUS 327	Managing Business Information
BUS 360	Business Management
CIS 105	3-D Computing
INFO 215	Social Computing

Choice of Two:

BUS 340	Topics in E-Commerce
CIS 218	Software Design & Programming
CIS 224	Database
CIS 326	Systems Analysis & Design
CIS 335	Technology & Ethical Issues
COM 200	Business and Technical Writing
INFO 120	Web Design Fundamentals
INFO 230	Web Design
INFO 310	Systems Definition & Management
INFO 401	Emerging Technologies
INFO 404	Human Computer Interaction

DEPARTMENT ADVISOR: Mr. Joseph Pugh

July 2010