"Spanish for the Careers"

Spanish immersion program in Cuernavaca, Mexico / Summer 2013

May 26th to June 16th 2013

- IMMERSE yourself in Mexican culture for 3 weeks in a beautiful, traditional colonial town.
- STUDY Spanish at a first-rate language school.
- EARN credit while experiencing the Mexican Culture!
- MEET the people and practice the language.
- ENJOY weekend and weekday excursions to surrounding cultural and historical areas.

Objective: This program is designed for students of all careers and all levels who are interested in improving their Spanish skills while spending three unforgettable weeks in Cuernavaca, México, “The City of Eternal Spring.”

What’s included:
* Spanish classes during 30 hours a week Monday through Friday,
* Books and transcripts,
* Accommodations at host families, meals (double room) and transportation.
* Cultural field trips every week.
* Guided weekend excursions to Taxco, Mexico City among others.
* Ground transportation from and to the Mexico City’s airport.

Program Highlights
* Small group classes with native speakers.
* All levels of Spanish available.
* Carefully chosen host families.
* Beautiful campus, swimming pools, gardens, wireless internet access.

What is not included: Airfare into México City’s airport, medical insurance coverage, laundry service ($5US/load), personal spending money and some meals during the weekend excursions.

For more information

Dr. Marisa Pereyra
Associate Professor of Spanish and Chair of the Global Languages and Cultures Department at Immaculata
email: MPereyra@immaculata.edu
Phone: 610-647-4400 ext 3454

Leticia Becerril
Program Director
email: leticia@kukulcan.com.mx
info@kukulcan.com.mx
website: www.kukulcan.com.mx